RARE CARL BARKS COMICS FOR SALE!

The following rare Carl Barks reprints of the old duck man's famous Donald Duck and Uncle Scrooge stories have been unearthed in a cache of an average of 50 to 75 copies each, all uncirculated, unread and originally published by Gold Key and Whitman between 1975 and 1982, prior to the Gladstone series. These were printed in much smaller quantities than earlier numbers (that also sell for much more) and are, therefore, more difficult to find on the collector's market today.

Prompt orders will be filled easily and in their entirety while supplies last; but alternate selections are encouraged and will be selected only if first choices are out of stock. Condition cannot be guaranteed mint (though most are), and therefore all sales are final. Immediate refunds will be made when all copies of a particular issue are sold out, provided that payment is made by money order or cashiers check. Personal checks are accepted, but will delay the shipment of the comics. Please do not send cash. Credit card orders are accepted over $100.00.

No minimum is required, but a $5.00 shipping, insurance and cardboard packaging fee must be added to all orders regardless of the quantity of comics ordered. Orders from outside the United States should enclose $10.00 for surface shipping. Please do not call our offices, as our secretaries will not be able to answer specific questions about condition, quantities or contents. Written inquiries will be answered as time and/or availability permit.

The number immediately following the title is the issue number. The number (or numbers) in parenthesis indicates the issue where the reprint originally appeared (the indicated first printings usually sell for two or three times or as much as 15 times the cost of these usually much rarer reprints).

Main orders payable to Gladstone, Box 2079, Prescott, AZ 86302.

GOOFUS HABILUS WAS A MORE INTELLIGENT BEING, VERY CURIOUS AN INVENTIVE.

So, until I can find me a qualified assistant, I'm yer letter-answerin' guy! Let's go!

Dear Editor,

I really, really loved GOOFY ADVENTURES #12! Arizona Goof -- what a character! He's totally goofier than Goofy. I can't get over how much Arizona Goof resembles Goofy. The plot so far is great! I just can't wait to get GOOFY ADVENTURES #13. Will we see any more of Arizona Goof after this adventure?

That's hard tuh say, Patrick. Muh cousin gets around even more'n I do, an' he's real hard tuh track down. But I promise that, thuh next time he drops in on me, I'll get him tuh tell another story for you all.

Dear Editor,

GOOFY ADVENTURES #12 may just have found a way to please everyone!

"Arizona Goof and the Lost Temple" is a long adventure featuring Goofy and Mickey in their conventional comics roles while, at the same time featuring a Goofy "clone" in a costumed role...albeit a popular media parody rather than a literary or historical figure. We are even given the chance to enjoy some of the all-too-seldom-seen Italian Disney comics work. For future issues, please sift through the Topolino files for more material in this vein. Surely some of the longer adventures by Romano Scarpa and others must use Goofy to similar advantage.

Even Floyd Gottfredson fans would have to walk away from this one with a smile, as the pacing reminds one of nothing more than that of a Mickey Mouse newspaper strip adventure. We spend some time with Mickey and Goofy in a domestic establishing scene. Then, with the arrival of Arizona Goof, we devote pages to gags which sketch out his quirky personality. Not until we are well into the story do we begin to move toward the adventure to come. "Sky Adventure," "The Mail Pilot," "Monarch of Medioka" and "Miracle Master" are just some examples of classic Gottfredson tales constructed in a similar fashion. "Arizona Goof" would seem to be in good company.

Finally, you announce the return of Super Goof. Even if you haven't pleased everyone, you've certainly pleased me.

Happy First Anniversary...and keep up the good work.

Gawrsh, not only do I not know whut tuh say tuh all that, I'm not sure I know whut all it was that you said, Joe. I think yuh liked muh story, even if yuh kept talkin' about Mickey an' all them writer fellers.

Dear Goofy,
GOOFY ADVENTURES #12 was great! It's neat for Goofy to have a cousin like that. I collect all the DISNEY COMICS, but I think that yours is the best.

Shucks, Janice, thanks fer thuh complyment. If there were more of you, I'm sure I'd go out an' collect 'em all.

Dear Goofy,

I'm 9 years old and I enjoy GOOFY ADVENTURES. I only have one complaint -- you don't put out very many Super Goof stories -- otherwise, I like them very much.

Whut can I say? I guess we just have tuh do whut yuh want.

yer pal,
Goofy
